

My name is Erin Burlando. My husband Nathan and I have been married for 17 years. We have three children, Aidan in grade 9, Ella in grade 6 and Ainsley in grade 4. We joined the Trinity community seven years ago when our oldest child was going into grade 3. We were seeking a change for our children's education and we are so grateful that God lead us to TCS. Our experience at TCS has been a huge blessing for our family. I have been a stay at home mom for the past 15 years. This has allowed me to volunteer in many different areas at TCS. As well as being home to raise our children, I also support my husband in running our small business.

Growing up I was fortunate to be raised by two parents who deeply love Jesus. They instilled in me the importance of a personal relationship with Jesus and a passion to study God's word. I accepted Jesus as my Savior at a very young age. I have seen God's faithfulness throughout my life. My faith and relationship with Jesus is a journey and I know that I am still a work in progress! Although I did not grow up going to Christian school, I am so thankful that my children have been able to receive a Christian education. A firm foundation is being built within each one of my children. I know that it is a direct result of the amazing teachers and staff at TCS that have invested in their lives.

Our family attends Mckenzie Towne Church. We have been attending there for almost 10 years. We have been involved in many ministries throughout the years. Currently I serve in the ladies ministry, my husband is on the elders board and we lead a small group together.

It is an honor to be asked to be a part of the ACSCS board. I know that this will stretch me and push me outside of my comfort zone. I am looking forward to seeing how God will use me to serve the TCS community.
