Dear Parents of TCS,

One of the most significant challenges I have come across with my position is the lack of time and space to connect with parents. I am excited to see that change in days, weeks, months and years to come. But in the meantime, I thought I could pass along some resources I have been using here at TCS or reading for personal growth.

You will find websites and books that I use here at TCS or have learned from as a father in my own home. We live in a complex time with many influences bombarding our children. I have a real passion to partner with parents and work with you to encourage and support you as parents are the KEY influence in our children's lives.

I have tried to include a wide variety of resources that cover several topics, issues, and opportunities to build into our children's lives. I hope to help equip, empower, and encourage you on this challenging and joy-filled road of parenting.

Please know I am praying for you and your children. We, as TCS staff, have the joy of seeing the fruits of your labour, and we want to say, press on; none of this is wasted!

Sincerely, Tim McAlpine
