

We were recently blessed with a chapel hosted by grade 2 and 7. We worshipped together, heard the delightful retelling of the book of Ruth, watched a creative skit, soaked up a fabulous poem, and listened to a beautiful choir. There were so many children sharing their unique gifts in a short period of time! Yet, each one of them was declaring their faith in the Lord in their own way! It reminded me of this quote from the book Transformational Education- A Framework For Christian Teaching.

“God’s creation consists of diversity in unity. God delights in variety and differences. Human beings, too, are diverse in their abilities, giftings, backgrounds, interest, but all are loved and valued by the Creator and are an integral part of the body of Christ. While unity and standardization tend to be rewarded in our society, the school will nurture differences and allow diversity to flourish. Differently abled students bless the community and provide opportunities for us to serve each other.”

“Now faith is confidence in what we hope for and assurance about what we do not see.”
Hebrews 11:1, NIV

June focus:
Faith to be faithful

When Daniel knew that the document had been signed, he went to his house where he had windows in his upper chamber open toward Jerusalem. He got down on his knees three times a day and prayed and gave thanks before his God, as he had done previously. Daniel 6:10

My God sent his angel and shut the lions' mouths, and they have not harmed me, because I was found blameless before him; and also before you, O king, I have done no harm.” Daniel 6:22
