

Brett Ashton

Brett and Kristen Ashton joined Trinity Christian School in 2021. Their children are Oliver (14) and Libby (12).

Brett is a pastor at Southview Church and has been at Southview for 15 years. Brett has been a musician in Calgary since the early 2000s and loves to make music. He also loves board games and will often play them alone because while his family loves him, they don't love his board games.

Being a part of TCS has been a gift to the Ashton family, and Brett is thrilled to be able to contribute in any way possible to help move the school and community forward as both an institution and community of faith.
